- 17.1 The whole of this clause 17 is subject to the provisions of clause 9.
- 17.2 The Parties hereby acknowledge that -
- 17.2.1 in the course of their involvement, Confidential Information belonging to either Party will be disclosed to and come to the attention of the other Party ("the Receiving Party");
- 17.2.2 in the event of the unauthorised disclosure of the Confidential Information, the Disclosing Party may suffer irreparable financial and other harm; and
- 17.2.3 the obligations contained in clause 17.1 shall not apply to Confidential Information which -
- 17.2.3.1 at the time of its disclosure is part of the public domain or which subsequently becomes, through no fault or failure of the Receiving Party, part of the public domain;
- 17.2.3.2 at the time of disclosure can be shown by the Receiving Party to the Disclosing Party, to have been in its possession prior to disclosure thereof by the Disclosing Party or to have come into its possession thereafter by disclosure of a third party.
- 17.3 The Receiving Party undertakes not to disclose, in whole or in part any Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written approval of the Disclosing Party.
- 17.4 The Receiving Party's confidentiality obligations hereunder shall remain in force for an indefinite period after the Date of Signature hereof.

- 17.5 The Receiving Party agrees that the sole purpose of the Confidential Information being disclosed or made accessible to it, is in connection with the performance of its duties in terms of this Agreement.
- 17.6 The Receiving Party undertakes not to use the Confidential Information for any other purpose or in any manner that is adverse or detrimental to the interest of the Disclosing Party.
- 17.7 In the event that this Agreement with the Disclosing Party is terminated or in any manner brought to an end, the Receiving Party shall return to the Disclosing Party all documents and other writings supplied by it to the Receiving Party and which constitute Confidential Information and the Receiving Party shall not retain any copies, extracts or other reproductions in whole or in part of such documents or other writings or any data contained in computers or stored on computer readable media of any kind prepared by the Disclosing Party or its employees, containing or based upon the Confidential Information.
- 17.8 The Disclosing Party shall be entitled, forthwith, without prior Written notice to the Receiving Party and without prejudice to any rights to which it may be entitled, to -
- 17.8.1 obtain an interdict in any competent court to prohibit the Receiving Party to continue with the contravention of its undertakings in terms hereof;
- 17.8.2 obtain a court order in any competent court for the delivery of any documents, writings, copies, extracts or reproductions referred to in clause 17.7 above.
- 17.9 For the avoidance of doubt the Parties record and acknowledge that the Insurer Materials, the Policyholder Data as well as the details of the Products and Policies shall constitute the Confidential Information of the Insurer, without limitation to other Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party.
- 17.10 This clause 17 is severable from the rest of the Agreement and shall continue to bind the Parties should the Agreement be terminated.

18. Termination

- 18.1 Either Party shall have the right to terminate the Agreement with 90 (ninety) days' written notice to the other Party for any reason whatsoever.
- 18.2 Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Agreement, either party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement in writing upon 7 (seven) business days' notice (or such shorter period as set out in the Termination Notice) if at any time:
- 18.2.1 either party's authorisation to act as a Financial Services Provider (FAIS license) becomes inoperative by virtue of lapsing, suspension or being withdrawn;
- 18.2.2 either party is Financially Distressed;
- 18.2.3 either party fails to meet a satisfactory rating after review by the Insurer or meet the required Performance Criteria in terms of Annexe C;
- 18.2.4 either party is provisionally or finally liquidated or wound-up or placed under Business Rescue or curatorship;
- 18.2.5 either party commits any act of insolvency in terms of the Insolvency Act 24 of 1936;
- 18.2.6 any of the assets of either party are subjected to judicial attachment and the parties fail to procure the release of such assets from attachment within 60 (sixty) days of the attachment; or
- 18.2.7 a director, shareholder or manager of either party, is convicted of an offence involving dishonesty.
- 18.3 Each of the notices and periods mentioned in clause 18.1 and 18.2 constitute a "Termination Notice" or a "Termination Period", as the case may be.

19. Breach

- 19.1 Save as otherwise provided in this Agreement, should either party commit any breach of any provision of this Agreement, and should such breach be -
- 19.1.1 incapable of remedy; or

- 19.1.2 be capable of being remedied and should either party fail to remedy such breach within 14 (fourteen) days after receiving written notice from the other party requiring the breaching party to do so, then the other party shall be entitled without prejudice to its breaching party's obligations, whether or not due for performance, in either event without prejudice to the other party's rights to claim damages.

20. Effect of termination and step-in rights

- 20.1 The Intermediary must, where a Termination Notice is given in terms of clause 18.1, notify the Policyholders at least 31 (thirty one) days before the expiry of the Termination Period, and provide proof to the Insurer.
- 20.2 Where a Termination Notice is given in terms of clause 18.2 the Intermediary must provide the Policyholders with the prescribed notice as soon as reasonably possible after the Termination Notice was given, and provide proof to the Insurer.
- 20.3 If a Termination Notice is given in terms of clause 18.1 the Intermediary shall -
- 20.3.1 continue to render the Services for the duration of the Termination Period in accordance with and in compliance with its obligations in terms of this Agreement;
- 20.3.2 not be entitled to any further fees, commission or remuneration of whatsoever nature payable in terms of this Agreement after expiry of the Termination Period; and where the Intermediary is unable to fulfil its obligations in terms of the run-off during the period between the Termination Notice and the expiry of the Termination Period and beyond, the Insurer may withhold up to 100% of any amounts due to the Intermediary in order to make provision for costs in managing the run off.
- 20.4 If a Termination Notice is given in terms of clause 18.2, no further Services shall be rendered by the Intermediary with effect from the date of the Termination Notice and all Services and payment of commission will immediately be terminated. All amounts owing to the Insurer will also become due and payable.
- 20.5 In the event that a Termination Notice is given in terms of either clause 18.1 or clause 18.2, the Intermediary shall:
- 20.5.1 within 24 (twenty four) hours of receipt of the Termination Notice or expiry of the Termination Period as instructed in Writing by the Insurer, deliver all documentation and information relating to the Insurer Data, Confidential Information and all Intellectual Property in its possession (including without limitation the Insurer Materials) to the Insurer in such form and format as the Insurer may prescribe in Writing;
- 20.5.2 provide all reasonable assistance to the Insurer in facilitating a seamless transfer of the Services back to the Insurer (or to a replacement service provider).
- 20.6 If the Intermediary is unable or unwilling to perform any of its continuing obligations during the Termination Period the Insurer may exercise its step-in rights and itself perform and/or appoint another administrator to perform such obligations, and the Intermediary shall be liable for all administration costs and fees incurred by the Insurer in this regard.
- 20.7 Termination of this Agreement shall not in any way affect the Insurer/insured relationship between the Insurer and the Policyholders.

21. Change of Control, cession, delegation and sub-contracting

- 21.1 The Intermediary shall not:
- 21.1.1 cede, assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations in terms of this Agreement to any third party; and/or
- 21.1.2 sub-contract or outsource any of its duties in respect of the Services to any third party, without the prior written consent of the Insurer and subject to such conditions as the Insurer may prescribe from time to time, including any requirement imposed by the Insurer that the relevant sub-contractor or transferee enter into such Written agreements with the Insurer as the Insurer may prescribe. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- 21.2 Any fees payable in terms of any sub-contract or outsourcing of the Intermediary functions to any person so authorised must come directly from the Intermediary and may not be paid by the Insurer.

22. Mediation and arbitration

22.1 Separate, divisible agreement

This clause 22 is a separate, divisible agreement from the rest of this Agreement and shall:

22.1.1 not be or become void, voidable or unenforceable by reason only of any alleged misrepresentation, mistake, duress, undue influence, impossibility (initial or supervening), illegality, immorality, absence of consensus, lack of authority or other cause relating in substance to the rest of the Agreement and not to this clause. The Parties intend that any such issue shall be subject to arbitration in terms of this clause; and

22.1.2 remain in effect even if the Agreement terminated.

22.2 Disputes subject to mediation and arbitration

Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or the subject matter of this Agreement including, without limitation, shall first be referred to a nominated representative of both Parties and if still not resolved by such persons within 15 (fifteen) days , such matter shall be decided by arbitration as set out in the remainder of this clause.

22.3 Appointment of arbitrator

The Parties shall agree on the arbitrator who shall be a practising attorney or advocate on the panel of arbitrators of AFSA, who must at least have least 15 (fifteen) years practical experience. Market Conduct Standards

1. The Intermediary will have appropriate policies and procedures in place to achieve the fair treatment of policyholders insofar as it is appropriate for their business model and the identified target market.
2. The fair treatment of policyholders encompasses achieving at least the following 6 outcomes:
 - (a) policyholders can be confident that they are dealing with a firm where the fair treatment of policyholders is central to its culture;
 - (b) products are designed to meet the needs of identified types, kinds or categories of policyholders and are targeted accordingly;
 - (c) policyholders are given clear information and are kept appropriately informed before, during and after the time of entering into a policy;
 - (d) where policyholders receive advice, the advice is suitable and takes account of their circumstances;
 - (e) policyholders are provided with products that perform as insurers or their representatives have led them to expect, and the associated service is both of an acceptable standard and what they have been led to expect; and
 - (f) policyholders do not face unreasonable post-sale barriers to change or replace a policy, submit a claim or make a complaint.
3. TCF information must be supplied to the Insurer on request in a format required by the Insurer from time to time that enables it to monitor the extent to which fair treatment of policyholders/members of a group scheme/potential policyholders/potential members of a group scheme is being achieved.
4. The Intermediary will monitor to ensure that the product and associated service is suitable to policyholders' needs, even where functions in the value chain are performed by other parties. Any instances of poor customer treatment that the Intermediary becomes aware of must be brought to the Insurer's attention immediately.
5. The Intermediary will have clear agreements in place regarding the division of responsibilities between the various parties/service providers in the relevant value chain to ensure fair treatment of policyholders.
6. The Intermediary will monitor the published decisions of the FAIS Ombud, guidance from the FSCA and other relevant information sources to ensure that controls and practices in relation to TCF remain relevant and effective.
7. The Intermediary agrees that the above mentioned requirements do not constitute an exhaustive list and will ensure that appropriate steps are taken to ensure that the requirements of this annexe meet the approval of the applicable authority and/or legislation as required from time to time.
